NEGRO ATTEMPTS THE USUAL CRIME

Hid in House of Mrs. Minnis Spencer and Threw Blanket Over Her Head,

WOMAN FOUGHT LIKE TIGER

Drove Fiend Away-Posse Has Captured Two Negroes, Who Are Held for Identification.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] ROSECROFT, MD., April 9.—Suscted of being the negro who ather home at Rosecroft, Md., last puty Sheriff Vincent, is going to the daces to-day where he says he was evening to convince the officials and an enraged community that his

to an alib! is the truth.

It falls to convince them of his ace, and if Mrs. Spencer this on identifies him as her assail-will require hard and strategic y officers of the law to keep him n harm at the hands of the people ording to the signs to-day.

"Freckled Mulatto."

rs. Spencer, who was attacked as stepped into her home last even-and who escaped only by fighting erately with the negro while she imed for help, gave this descrip-of her assailant:

[6] was a short, bright mulatto, a freekled face and very cools.

a freckied face and very curly, hair. He wore a dark serge Couldn't Identify Negro.

He was taken before Mrs. Spencer, it, owing to her hysterical condition, owing to ner hysterical condition, was not able to say definitely her or not he was the man who attempted to assault her. John he returns with the sheriff his journey in an attempt to his alibi, he will be taken again e Mrs. Senger. At the same time.

Covered With Blood.

lowed by others, went to her e. While the men formed in to hunt for the negro, who from the house, the women Simpson dressed Mrs. Spen-inds. To Dr. Simpson and to the story of the attempted as-

Wrapped in Horse-Blanket.

Witapped in Horse-Blanket. She had left the house unlocked to to a washerwoman's house a short distance away. She returned half an iour later. As she stepped into her allway a negro threw a horse-blanket about her face and arms. She fought vigorously and finally freed her face from the folds of the heavy blanket. While she fought with the strength of desperation she screamed for help.

Frightened by her cries, the hegro-finally fied through the back door. Mrs. Spencer then staggered to the street, crying for help. She is pronounced to be doing well to-day. Last night she suffered from yiolent nervousness and hysteria.

Patents and Post-Offices. Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WASHINGTON, D. C., April 9.—Pat-

ents Issued:
Virginia—Thomas J. Akers, Riner, spike; Henry E. Bell, Burkeville, hay curing rack; James P. Bennett, Broad-litchmond, curing concrete blocks; Milton Johnson, Danville, overalls; Roy Moore and R. L. Ferguson, Haran, penholder; anues D. Winston, Richmond, apparatus for making modded blocks.
North Carolina—Romanus Krause, Swanquarter, combined potate-digger and cotton-chopper; Charles M. Over-

Postal News.

Postmasters appointed: Virginia-Iron Gate, Alleghany county, James W.

Iron Gate, Anegame, Surber, Surber, North Carolina—Rover, Beaufort county, Sarah E Mills, vice Jeanette Stubbs, resigned.

William P. Pearce, appointed regular, John B. Pearce, substitute, rural free delivery carrier, route 2, at Wake Porest, N. C.

For Habitual and Obstinate Constipation.

ORDINARY DOSE .- A Wineglassful before Breakfast.

The good effects of Apenta Water are maintained by smaller and steadily diminishing doses, repeated for successive days.

IN SPLITS ONLY.

A Refreshing and Pleasant Aperient for Morning Use.

Sole Exporters: THE APOLLINARIS CO., Ltd., London.

the jury.

The Sanctity of Home.

"Remember, gentlemen, the law is a uman law. I violate no law when I

Ing.
In reference to the district attorney's remarks before the lunacy commission, that Thaw is hopelessly insane, much interest attaches to the line of argument he will pursue in asking for the man's conviction.

Woman Who Claims Minister

Graves Insulted Her.

to the State Department against United experts in herself.

(Signed)
"IDA M. VON CLAUSSEN."

State Department to Take Up

Matter.

DELMAS GLOSES

State, but which denotes the character

A Sacrificial Offering.

The Sanctity of Home.

"That is the species of insanity which makes every American man believe his home to be sacred; that is the species of insanity which makes him believe the honor of his daughter is sacred; that is the species of insanity which makes him believe the honor of his wife is sacred; that is the species of insanity which makes him believe that whoseever invades his home, that whoseever invades his home, that whoseever stains the virtue of his threshold, has violated the highest of human laws, and must appeal to the mercy of God, if mercy there be for him anywhere in the universe.

"That is the species of insanity which has been recognized by the courts in the cases of—"

Mr. Garvan was on his feet with an objection, saying that the argument was taking too wide a range,

"You understand," said Justice Fitzgeraid, to Mr. Delmas, The latter waved his hand and turned again to the interpretation of the same cate to the audience that there was ne danger to them. He then walked slowly to where his wife stood, and when she said, 'Oh, Harry, what have you done?' he replied, 'It is all right, dearie; I have probably saved your life.' As he said this he stooped and kissed her. When he was disarmed he said, 'He ruined my wife.' When the potteeman came he said, 'He ruined my wife.' cate to the audience that there was

"I have dwelt upon these incidents, "I have dwelt upon these incidents, gentlemen, to call your attention to the fact that the safety of his wife, whose menace was implied by the very presence of this man, was uppermost in his mind. To him this man, who had met the young wife on the street, who had followed her to the doctor's, had also followed her to the Cafe Martin and to the roof garden. This was the man who had boasted he would get the young wife away from her husband. So it was that after he had shot, the first great thought that welled up within him in the storm and stress of the moment was that 'at last my wife is safe. I have saved her life."

"Do not send this young man to wife is safe. I have saved her life."

For Defense of Womanhood.

"And then, when he answered the officer and said, 'He has ruined my wife,' which was the condition of his mind? What was it when, as he was quietly and peaceably walking down the alise, he turned and saw the hideling. With dramatic emphasis, Mr. Delmas cried out that when Harry Thaw beheld Stanford White on the Madison Square Roof Garden, the story of his wife's wrongs overcame him. He pictured in an instant—as a dying man may picture his past life—all that Stanford White had done—'the ruin he had wrought, and he struck, struck as the tigress strikes in defense of her young, struck for the home, struck for American womanhood, struck' for humanity, and Stanford White fell.

Benefit of the Doubt.

"Do not send this young had to did.
"I now, with all solemnity, leave in your hands the fate of Harry K. Thaw."
Thaw arose from his chair, went the were sitting, grasped their hands confident-lig, and then, with head crect, made his diving glose behind him.
Thaw believes his case to be won, and freely expressed himself to his counsel.

An adjournment was ordered by Justice Fitzgerald until 11:30 o'clock to roory wroning, who was not in the courtroom at any stage of to-day's proceedings, will begin his summing up speech. The case will likely be in the hands of the jury to-morrow evenling.

In reference to the district attorney's remarks before the lunacy com-

Benefit of the Doubt.

Bencfit of the Doubt.

"Ah, gentlemen," the advocate went on, "if Harry Thaw believed he was the instrument of Providence, who will say he was mistaken?"

Mr. Delmas discussed but briefly the testimony of the expert witnesses, declaring that whatever weight might attach to their utterances was on the side of the defendant. He declared the burden of proof as to Thaw's sanity at the time of the honicide rested with the prosecution, which had falled to make out its case. Coming to the question of reasonable doubt, Mr. Delmas said:
"Gentlemen, take your minds back

Gentlemen, take your minds back "Gentlemen, take your minds back to the day you were examined, when the learned justice said to you, 'Are you ready to give this defendant the benefit of every reasonable doubt' and on your oaths that you were, you were admitted to the jury box. "Before you send this young man to his doom you must be satisfied of his guilt beyond every reasonable doubt.

the Sendant. The great English judge once said that it is better that ninety-nine guility men should escape rather than that one innocent man should be punished. If there is one chance in a hundred that this defendant was of such unsound mind as not to know the nature of his act, then you must give him the benefit of that doubt.

"Dementia Americana."

"I ask you in the name of the law

Shot His Mother-in-Law.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BRISTOL, TENN., April 9.—Henry Williams, a negro, who shot his wife's mother here three months ago with miraculous intent, and fled the city, was captured at Glade Spring, Va., today.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Louisa Court Day,

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LOUISA, VA., April 9.—Politics-seemed to be the sole topic of conversators was enthusiastic over R. L. Gordon's candidacy for Congress, and it seemed to be the opinion of many that the next representative from this district would be Mr. Gordon.

The general opinion here is that Carl II. Notling, of Trevillais, who is widely and favorably known all over the county, would be a candidate for the General Assembly, and it is not thought that he will have any opposition if he decides to announce his candidacy.

"Dementia Americana."

"I ask you in the name of the law which I is volument, I ask you in the name of religion, to resolve whatever doubt you may have in favor of this denant."

It was in discussing Thaw's mental state that Mr. Delmas came at last to the "unwritten law."

I'm discription to resolve whatever doubt you may have in favor of this denant."

It was in discussing Thaw's mental state that Mr. Delmas came at last to the "unwritten law."

I'm discription to resolve whatever doubt you may have in favor of this denant."

It was in discussing Thaw's mental it was in discussing Thaw's mental with the power at last to the "unwritten law."

I'm discription to resolve whatever doubt you may have in favor of this denant."

It was in discussing Thaw's mental it was in discussing Thaw's mental with the power at last to the "unwritten law."

I'm discription to resolve whatever doubt you may have in favor of this denant."

I'm sak you in the name of the law which I invoke, I ask you in the name of religion, to resolve whatever doubt you may have in favor of this denant."

I'm sak you in the name of religion, to resolve whatever doubt you may have in favor of this denant."

I'm sak you in the

Every mother feels a great dread of the pain and danger attendant upon the most critical period of ben life.

of her life. Becoming mother should be a source of joy to all, but the suffering and langer incident to the ordeal makes its anticipation one of misery. Mother's Friend is the only remedy which relieves women of the great pain and danger of maternity; this hour which is dreaded as woman's severest trial is not only made painless, but all the danger is avoided by its use. Those who use this remedy are no longer despondent or gloomy; nervousness, nausea and other distressing conditions are overcome, the system is made ready for the coming event, and the serious accidents so common to the critical hour are obviated by the use of Mother's Friend. "It is worth its weight in gold," says many who have used it. $1.00 per bottle at drug stores. Book containing valuable information of interest to all women, will be sent to any address frage.

Had on Board Two Hundred and Fifty Tons of Coal for the Connecticut.

ROUGH WEATHER ON COAST

Wind Blowing Forty-Six Miles Outside Capes and Only Ten Miles Less in Norfolk City.

recognized in every State of this Union—from Canada to Mexico, from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

"Ah, gentlemen," said Mr. Delmas dramatically turning to the allenists who testified for the prosecution, "If you desire a name for this species of insanity, let me suggest it—call it dementia Americana."

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, VA., April 9.—One of the big steel coal barges from the navy yard was sent down the river this morning to place 250 tons of coal aboard the battleship Connecticut, off Lambert's Point.

It was blowing great guns and out in Hampton Roads, where there was nothing to obstruct the gale, a heavy sea was running.

No somer had the barge been gotten alongside the battleship than a heavy gust, accompanying a big roller from across the Roads, got the barge by the side and bottom at the same time and she turned turtle as neatly as a cance, carrying her coal along with her to the bottom. There was nobody aboard the barge at the time of the accident.

The naval authorities will send

aboard the barge at the time of the accident.

The naval authorities will send divers to the scene immediately, and it is probable that the big hundred-ton crane will be sent down to fish for the barge.

The gale that accompanied last night's rain continued this morning and made it hard for the shipping in port and at sea.

In the city it was of sufficient velocity to make locomotion dicu't and umbrellas useless, and thousands of dollars' worth of damage was done in Portsmouth by the collapse of a large building under impact of the heavy gusts.

of much greater violence.

Building Collapses.

The large three-story frame building of the colored Order of Odd Fellows which was in course of crection on County Street, Portsmouth, between Cooke and Pine Streets, fell to the ground this morning shortly before 11 o'clock. The crash mad eby the structure was heard several blocks away. Owing to the inclement weather work on the house was suspended and there was no one in or about it.

The crash startled every one around and for a while there was considerable excitement in that immediate neighborhood.

excitement in that immediate neighborhood.

The house was eighty feet long and thirty feet wide, and its falling means the loss of at least $2,000.
While it is said that the contractor claimed that the falling of the house was not due to poor workmanship or bad material, yet people who have visited the scene of the collapsed building say that they were unable to see a timber in the debris larger tian four by four, and that the foundation was not sufficiently strong to support a structure as large as the hall.

TRHEE DROWN.

In Yesterday's Storm Tug Leaves Barges and Men to Their Fate.

Barges and Men to Their Fate.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CAPE CHARLIES, VA., April 9.—

During a heavy northwest gale this morbing the tug Dixle, while towing five barges loaded with coal and gravel en route from Baltimore to Norfolk, Va., when opposite Newpoint Lighthouse was forced to cut the barges adrift and seek harbor. The barges adrift and seek harbor. The harges in tow were Perryville and Comiskey, owned by the Easton McMain Transportation Company, of Philadelphia; Minerva, owned by Risley & Co., Philadelphia; Marvel, owned by Captain Cordrey, of Baltimore, Md., and Delaware, owned by Southern Transportation Company, Philadelphia. The barges Perryville and Delaware were towed here by the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad Company's tugs, Norfolk and Portsmouth, and are apparently in good condition; barge Minerva is reported anchored off Newpoint and safe; barge Comiskey, in charge of Captain John Eagan and son, sunk and father and son were drowned; barge J. H. Marvel is supposed to have drifted to sea. Mate Andrew Williams was washed overboard from barge Perryville and drowned. The tug and barges left Baltimore Friday night and left there Sun-

LAWSON ALL RIGHT.

Seen Off Carolina Coast-No Distress Signals Displayed.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, VA., April 9.—The seven disted tank barge Thomas W. Lawson district and leaking fourteen miles south masted tank barge Thomas W. Lawson, adrift and leaking, fourteen miles southeast of Cape Lookout several days ago, was reported to-day off Chicamicomico, N. C., bound northward. The vessel displayed no sign of distress, and as she carries much sail no apprehension is feits for her safety.

The four-masted schooner Louise Bossert, absore off the Nag's Head lifesaving station, can be ideated by the Merritt & Chapman wreckers, it is thought, without great difficulty or delay. Captain W. S. Tooker, a wrecking master of Merritt & Chapman, has returned from a trip South aboard the wrecking steamer Rescue. He went out to look for the schooner Laura L. Sprague, reported ashore or waterlogged at Oeracoke Inlet but could see nothing of the vessel. Captain Tooker is inclined to believe that the report on the schooner was a mistake. interview with the President to state there case. This was refused ner, whereupon she left with the officials it the following letter, at the same timb giving a copy to the press:

"Washington, D. C., April 9, 1907.

"To the Right Honorable Theodore Rooseveit, President of the United States:

"Sir,—Mrs. von Claussen is in receipt of President Rooseveit's refusal to see her and redress the insult offered her by his representatives in Sweden, Mr. and Mrs. Graves. She cannot appeal again to the State Department, as she received its final decision before she left Sweden,

"Mrs. von Claussen begs President Roosevelt to at once appoint a committee of experts to make sure that she is of sound mind before she proceeds further in this case, for she knows well, from previous reports, that when President Roosevelt is 'corneral' he has a jubit of appointing such committees to help him out of his difficulty. Therefore, not caring to lay herself open to further criticism, Mrs. von Claussen demands that such a committee be appointed at once; otherwise she will call the experts in herself.

(Signed)

SHIP AGROUND.

George Pyman, British Steamer,

George Pyman, British Steamer,
Drags Anchor.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NEWPORT NEWS, VA., April 2.—During a violent wind-storm this morning the British steamship George Pyman, Captain Gaine, dragged her anchor for more than a mile, passed though a fleet of ten big schooners, crashed into the four-masted schooner John Twohy, and then went hand aground on Point Breeze, about a mile below this city. Signals of distress from the steamer were unanswered. The ship will be hauled off and taken to the ship-yards to-morrow for a survey and repairs.

yards to-morrow for a survey and repairs.

She was not damaged to any extent by the collision, but her luil probably has suffered by the grounding. The steamer came here Sunday from St. Vincent for painting and repairs.

Craving for Drink Destroyed.

Matter.

Mrs. von Chaussen appeared at the White House about half past 10 o'clock this morning. She came in a closed carriage and after getting out at the oxecutive office sent her card to Secretary Loch. The Secretary delegated his assistant, Mr. Foster, to talk to Mrs. von Claussen, who stated her wish to see the President, When this privilege was refused her, she left the White House and returned to her hotel. Her demeaner was courteous and dignified throughout, though it was evident that she was very much disappointed, saying as she left the oilices that the President had failed to assist and protect her and that he must take the consequences of his refusal.

Ars. von Claussen stated to night Mrs. von Claussen, who stated her was refused her, she left the White House and returned to her hotel. Her demeanor was courteous and dignified throughout, though it was evident that she was very much disappointed, saying as she left the offices that the President had falled to assist and project her and that he must take the consequences of his refusal.

Afrs. von Claussen stated to-night that Assistant Secretary of State Bacon telephoned her that if she would present her side of the case in writing, it would receive his careful consideration. She said she would prepare the statement, but that she will not call in person at the State Department to present it.

The storm which swept over this section to-day was one of unusual vicince. Several roofs were blown off houses and other damage was done ashore and affect.

WORKS HAVOC.

Storm So Severe That Telegraph

Telegraph wires were also down, am not until this evening was communication with the outside world restored On many county roads telephone pole were blown down and wires are strewn along roadways in great confusion.

THEIR NETS GONE.

High Winds on Coast Have Cost Fishermen Thousands.

Fishermen Thousands.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, VA., April 9.—The high winds of the past week have destroyed many fish-pounds in the Virginia waters, and it is probable that fish will be a little scarce in the local markets for some days to come. In some instances, nets and even stakes were carried completely away, and the damage done to the pounds alone will amount to thousands wieldlars.

Sprague Leaking Badly.

Sprague Leaking Badly.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WILMINGTON, N. C., April 9.—The United States revenue cutter Seminole, Captain J. H. Quinan, arrived to-day, towing into Southport the schooner Laura
L. Sprague, lumber-laden, from Jacksonville, Fla., to Elizabethport, N. J., previously reported in distress at Ocracoke, N. C. She is leaking badly, Lost part of her deck load.

No Relief for the Bossert.

Ro Relief for the Bossett, [special to The Times-Dispatch.] NORFOLK, VA., April 9.—Norfolk weekers on the tug Coley, who have been standing by the stranded Brooklyn schooner Louis Bossert, ashore south of Kill Davil Hill Life-Saving Station, on the North Carolina coast, were, as the result of high winds and rough seas, still unable to-day to get a cable to the Bossert, which is well on the beach.

MUST PAY POLL TAX.

County Chairman Urging Demo crats to Be Prompt.

one of the finest tracts of farm land in this section, about three miles from this place, and devotes a greater por-tion of his time there when not serving his county in the legislative halls.

COTTON CONFERENCE.

Will Be Held at Atlanta During

Will Be Heid at Atlanta During the Month of October.

NEW YORK April 9.—An international conference of cotton growers, manufacturers and dealers will be held at Atlanta, Ga., on October 7th, 8th and 9th next. This was decided upon to-day at a meeting in this city of the presidents of the National Union of Cotton Manufacturers, the Southern Cotton Association, the Cotton Manufacturers' Association and the Farmers' Union.
It was announced that arrangements have been made for an extended tour by special train through the cotton raising districts by the European and American delegates to the conference in special trains. Invintions will be extended to domestic and foreign associations.

GEORGIA STUDENTS OF

IMMIGRATION QUESTION
NEW YORK, April 9.—On the steamer
Kalser Wilhelm II., which salled to-day, was a party consisting of Governor-elect Hoke Smith, of Georgia; William W.
Williamson, president of the Savannah
Chamber of Commerce, and G. Gunby
Jordan, president of the Immigration Association of Georgia. They are going to study the immigration question with a view to the development of the resources of Georgia.

CLAIRVOYANT ARRESTED CHARGED WITH STEALING

CHARGED WITH STEALING UNION, S. C., April 5.—A man supposed to be Earle Vautare, who is charged with having defrauded residents of Greensbore of $10,000 in money and jewelry while posing as a clairvoyant, was captured in a remote section of this county to-day, and will brought here to await identification by persons from Greensbore. The prisoner protests his innocence, claiming to be S. A. Ward.

All-Silk Taffeta Ribbon, 10°vd

In All Colors, No. 40---No. 80, 12/2c

The newest patterns in Persian Ribbons, best quality, 5 1-2 Inches in width, 45c yard; 7 inches, per yard ...... One inch and a half Moire Belting, gros-grain, best quality, in black and colors, something new and stylish; per 50c

All-Silk Taffeta Ribbons, in all colors—

All-Silk Plaid Ribbons, in the best patterns, 4 inches, 35e yard; 5 inches, per yard..... All-Silk Louisine Ribbons, in good colors; No. 80, per President Appoints Huntsville Man Despite Warm Opposition.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 9.—Presdent Roosevelt to-day oppointed Osear R. Hundley, of Huntsville, Ala, to be a United States district judge for the Northern District of Alabama.

This ends a long contest for this office, for which there were a number of applicants, both Republicans and Democrats. There is said to be considerable opposition to Mr. Hundley from members of his own party, and Senator Pettus, who has taken an active part in the fight against his appointment, recently lodged a vigorous protest against him, declaring that the feeling against Mr. Hundley was participated in by a large contingent of the Republicans of Alabama.

Accompanying the announcement of the appointment, Secretary Loob gave

MR. EDISON'S BIG FISH.

Inventor and His Wife, While Fishing, Catch a Shark.

Fishing, Catch a Shark.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

RED BANK, N. J., April 9.—Thomas A.

Edison, the inventor, and his wife have been enjoying a vacation at Fort Myers.
Pla, While he and his wife were fishing from a small boat recently, Mrs. Edison felt an unusually hard tug at her line.
Investigation revealed a shark struggling desperately for freedom. With great difficulty, Mr, and Mrs. Edison towed their catch to the shore and, with the aid of friends, despatched it. They will have the carcass stuffed.

Marriage in Washington.
WASHINGTON, April 9.—Mr. Leroy Cary and Miss Mary W. Bartlett, both of Richmond, Va., and Mr. Dennis J.
Calvert and Miss Nora V. Sutherland, both of Dumfries, Va., were married here to-day.

TO BOARDS OF HEALTH

After an investigation instigated in New Orleans recently, Dr. J. C. Mims, (Chemist Board of Health of New Orleans) Testifies as Follows:

"This is to certify that I have purchased in the open market "This is to certify that I have purchased in the open market a quantity of Coca-Cola Syrup and submitted same to analysis. After a careful examination I find that it fails to show the presence of alcohol, cocaine or other injurious alkaloids. This syrup contains the alkaloid caffeine in the proportion of one and sixty-four hundredths, (1.64 Grs.) O grains per fluid ounce. Caffeine is the alkaloid found in tea, coffee, etc., and the quantity present in one bottle of Coca-Cola is less than that contained in a cup of strong coffee.

(Signed) J. C. MIMS.

Sold Everywhere Guaranteed Under the Pure Food and "不是我们的,我们就是我们的一个,我们就是我们的一个。" "我们就是我们的一个,我们就是我们的一个,我们就是我们的一个,我们就是我们的一个,我们就是我们的一个,我们就是我们的一个,我们就是我们的一个,我们就是我们的一个

I he Lquitable Life

Assurance Society

OF THE UNITED STATES, -PAUL MORTON, President-OFFERS TO THE PUBLIC THE

New Standard Life Insurance Policy PRESCRIBED BY THE

New York State Law.

THE POLICY has been framed to insure to each policyholder the fullest protection and every appropriate benefit. It is incontestable and unrestricted after the first Dividends*are paid annually.-Liberal loan, and surrender values are granted. Policy payable at maturity either in cash or in instalments.

The money may be left with the Society at interest.

The insurance may be converted into an annuity, THE COMPANY. The financial strength of the Society; its promptness and liberal dealing with the public; its many reforms; the conservatism and economy with which its affairs are administered, guarantee to its policyholders insurance that insures-protection that protects. For further particulars, apply to the undersigned,

William A. Danner, General Agent, 1118 E. Main St., Richmond, Va.

be sent to any address free upon application to BRADFIELD REGULATOR OO., Atlanta. Ga.